{gallery}profiles/piotr{/gallery}Piotr Rózanski (born 1980 in Poland) photographer, Filmmaker, Director of photography of the Eidos Film Society, Hairstylist.

Explored various ways of photography in last 7 years. Documentaction of different people and their way of life.

Having always had an interest in interpersonal relationships, hairdressing was a stepping-stone in my personal development and the camera then became an excellent tool in bridging relations. Photography became a way of getting different people to trust and open up to me. Furthermore, photography enabled me to open my eyes to different cultures, explore and compare their lifestyles.
